

Doug Bates Bio

Doug Bates is the Vice-President of Federal Relations for the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company and based in Washington DC. He chairs of the Board of the Tax Council Policy Institute and serves on the Board of Directors of The Tax Council. Prior to joining Northwestern Mutual, Doug served for over 12 years as tax lobbyist of the American Council of Life Insurers specializing in federal legislative and regulatory issues relating to the tax treatment of life insurance companies and life insurance products, including annuities and long-term care insurance. Before joining the ACLI in 1989, Mr. Bates staffed tax policy initiatives for The Business Roundtable and The Tax Foundation, and served as tax staff for Rep. Bill Gradison on the House Ways and Means Committee. He is a graduate of Kenyon College and Indiana University Graduate School of Economics.