

Barbra Beaulieu
Senior Vice President of Tax, Primerica Inc.

Barbra Beaulieu is the Senior Vice President of Tax at Primerica Inc. where she is responsible for all tax matters facing the Company. Primerica spun-off from its former parent company CitiHoldings, a subsidiary of CitiGroup, through an initial public offering that occurred on April 1, 2010. It is the largest financial services marketing organization in North America.

Prior to joining Primerica, Barbra was with Lodgian Inc. as the Vice President of Tax, Internal Audit & Controls for 6 years and, prior to that, with Ernst & Young LLP where she worked for 6 years in the Global Tax Operate practice. She has extensive experience in the day-to-day operations of tax departments with strengths in bringing clarity to the chaotic environments of organizational change and growth brought on by today's complex corporate transactions such as spin-offs, restructuring, reorganizations, and mergers and acquisitions. She also has an extensive background in audit and controls.

She holds both a Bachelor of Accounting and Master in Taxation degrees from Florida Atlantic University, where she graduated Cum Laude. Ms. Beaulieu is a Certified Public Accountant licensed by the State of Georgia.
