

Dawn Cummings-Fritz

Dawn is Vice President, Insurance Tax Planning for Zurich in North America, with primary responsibility for federal and state tax controversy matters and other insurance tax research and planning. Prior to joining Zurich, she was with Ernst & Young in their tax consulting practice. Dawn has presented at multiple insurance industry conferences on various tax matters. She received her M.S. in Taxation, as well as her B.S.C. (with a concentration in Accountancy) from DePaul University in Chicago, Illinois and is a Registered Certified Public Accountant. Dawn is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the Insurance Tax Conference and is the ITC's current Senior Vice President.