

ROBERT A. FISCELLA

Bob Fiscella is Vice President – International Tax Director at General Reinsurance Corporation in Stamford, CT. He is responsible for both the United States and international tax aspects of General Reinsurance's foreign operations, including tax planning, corporate restructuring, tax compliance, and financial accounting for General Reinsurance's international operations, with special emphasis on subpart F income and the foreign tax credit. Prior to joining General Reinsurance, Bob spent over 20 years in the manufacturing sector in tax research and planning, concentrating on acquisitions, divestitures, and joint ventures, particularly in international matters.

Bob received a B.S. in Accounting (summa cum laude) from Fairfield University, a J.D. from the University of Virginia School of Law, and an LL.M. (in Taxation) from the New York University School of Law. He is a member of the bars of the States of New York and Connecticut.