

Dean Hindman

Dean is a Vice President and Senior Counsel for the MassMutual Financial Group in Springfield, Massachusetts, where he is a member of the Law Department. His practice focuses on the federal taxation of investment transactions and products, including the taxation of derivative financial instruments. Dean frequently participates in insurance industry groups that identify and attempt to solve various legislative and regulatory tax issues. He has previously joined tax panels at prior Insurance Tax Conferences in Chicago and has also spoken at annual meetings of the Federal Bar Association.