

Michael Palm

State Tax Director

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP

Office: (312) 298 2483

michael.palm@us.pwc.com

Michael Palm is a State Tax Director in the Chicago Office of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, specializing in matters relating to the state taxation of the insurance industry. Leaning on 19 years of experience, Michael assists insurance clients across the United States on state and local tax matters including; income/franchise, premium, sales/use, payroll and property tax. This assistance involves tax compliance, tax policy, credits/incentives, audits/controversy and tax planning.

Prior to joining PricewaterhouseCoopers, Michael was a tax director at the Nationwide Insurance group of companies, with oversight of all state and local taxes for the group. These duties included handling audits by state and local taxing authorities, state and local tax planning and review over the state and local tax compliance functions of the group. During this time, he also served as the Chairman of the Indiana Insurance Institute's Tax and Investment Committee and a Co-Chairman of the State Tax Committee of the Cincinnati Chapter of Tax Executives Institute.

Michael received a B.S. degree in Business with a concentration in Accounting from The Ohio State University and a Masters of Taxation degree from Capital University. He is a licensed Certified Public Accountant in Illinois and Ohio and a member of the American Institute of CPAs. Additionally, he is a member of the National Premium Tax Conference Advisory Panel.